

Seven principles for work groups

Managers and union stewards are jointly responsible for:

- Success of the department
- Success of the unions
- Involving employees in effective decision making
- Supporting and implementing the Partnership
- Securing LMP training for employees
- Establishing effective labor-management relations
- Making sure employees provide a superior health care experience for health plan members

(From Principles and Behaviors for LMP Work Groups)!